Report of the Librarian of

THE LISBON PUBLIC LIBRARY

The functions of the library have been carried on as usual during the year, but because of the number of people who have left town, or are too busy to read, the circulation was below that of a few years ago.

The book committee has met every other month and has endeavored, in so far as the allotment of money for books would allow, to select those that would meet the most demands both for reference and for reading. Books have, also, been borrowed from the State library and the Bookmobile. Three hundred and fifteen books were bought and received as gifts during the year. Of these 81 were non-fiction and 89 were for the junior department. Lists of these books have been posted in the library and the covers displayed there. The local paper, however, is no longer willing to print these lists because of a lack of help, but arrangements have been made to have them again in the town report, thanks to the Selectmen.

The novel having the largest circulation during the year was "The Robe." The non-fiction was quite equally circulated, "The Raft," "We Took to the Woods," and "See Here, Private Hargrove" running a little ahead of the others.

Books have been given by Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Carpenter and Mr. Hutton, magazines by Mrs. Moulton, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Aldrich, Mr. Currier, Mr. Foley, the Grange and the D. A. R., all of whom I wish to thank.

MILDRED G. CLOUGH, Librarian.

THE RICHARDSON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

SUGAR HILL, N. H.

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

The library contains approximately 7,281 volumes, not including government reports and magazines.

During the past year 224 books have been added by appropriation and gift. Periodicals for the reading room and circulation include: American, American Home, Good Housekeeping, McCalls, Cosmopolitan, Woman's Home Companion, Readers Digest, Ladies' Home Journal, Better Homes and Gardens, Your Life, New York Times Book Reviews, Life, Flight, Army Life, Clear Horizons.

Donors to the library include Mrs. J. Warner Fobes, Mrs. Arthur S. Walcott, Mrs. Carl S. Hoskins, Mrs. Grace W. Atwood, Mrs. Annie H. Bowles, Mrs. Deborah P. Coffin, Mrs. Lawrence Gilman, Otto T. Mallery.

Total number of books and periodicals loaned, 4,261; fiction, 1,019; non-fiction, 1,061; periodicals, 2,181.

The fact that the war has changed all phases of life is borne out clearly in the general trend of the demand for reading material.

The decrease in this year's circulation is due in part to the fact that the managements of the hotels extended the privilege of their respective libraries to their employees. Also I noted that the college men and women who usually depend wholly on our library for source material were absent from the colony this year due to exhilarated college courses and war work.

As in other years we constantly strive to serve our youth. A large part of the attendance is made up of the high school and grade school students. The teachers have shown much interest in securing from the library supplementary material for their work.

Realizing the great service the library is to the community, it is my hope that the selection of books and the activities connected with it will prepare the library to take its place as an indispensable part in the post war plan.

And at the close of another pleasant year may I extend my gratitude to the members of the Board of Trustees for their cooperation and to my townspeople, with whom I have many pleasant associations centered around the library work.

Respectfully submitted,

JERUSHA E. PARKER, Librarian.

ALICE H. SMITH, Assistant.
